

FREEDOM CENTER MINISTRIES

NOVEMBER '10 NEWS

One of Jesus' disciples asked Him to teach them to pray.

This sounds very important. Let us make time for prayer...pray without ceasing. The Tri-City Prayer Conference Nov. 4-6 focused on 2nd Chronicles 7:14 "If my people"...included 2 guest speakers, some local folk, missionaries, and pastors. A little disappointed in the turnout, but apparently God brought the ones He wanted. We had fellowship and prayed for the giants to fall in the Tri-City area.

The action plan after the conference: To begin weekly prayer meetings on Thursday nights; the first meeting encouraged us...we praised, shared with thanksgiving...one local pastor shared some points from his messages and insight of the scriptures. We bowed and prayed to our Heavenly Father.

Future careers for the next generation. We are so excited about a project that has just gotten underway. Several people from Riverland Hills BC in Columbia, SC will be coming up in the near future to go into three area schools to present a kind of show and tell of different careers to the children in the 4th through 8th grades. They will bring hope, encouragement, desire, and dreams. Pray with us that this will broaden the children's vision of what they can be when they grow up. More on this as it develops.

The November give-away was full of blessings for the folks...they received coats, blankets, clothes, toys, boots, and shoes...what a JOY IT IS TO GIVE. The days Freedom Center shop was open we served 80-100 folks each day. At Bible fellowship before the shop opens we have church...about 12-15 are in attendance some days more.

On Nov 10th a mission team from Old Hickory BC Old Hickory, TN served at FCM and they brought athletic shoes and nice winter boots provided by Soles for Souls. They shared in Bible fellowship with local folk at FC shop. Also, they were a great help in the warehouse...and updated the computer.

The mild November weather allowed us to get prepared for winter! Well, I checked with the local folk, checked online and could not find anyone that would service our chimney in this area. One morning at FC shop a friend came in...as we talked, he said I can do it...I will help ya'll with anything. God has blessed us with a great and faithful friend. Praise Him! Finally, it has been a journey, we got the chimney vented and the buck stove installed by a local friend and our local propane company guy came...he checked for leaks and lit the pilot light. We are keeping warm...ready for the winter months.

The cold weather is around the corner. We broke out the cold weather gear: gloves, boggans, and scarves. FCM were blessed with several loads of donations this month from Lugoff, SC and Goodlettsville, TN with toys, house wares, bed linens, and other needed things.

FCM - Linda, Robin, and George journeyed across the mountain to visit friends at Calvary Campus and welcome the Pardo Family to the mission field of Eastern Kentucky. They will direct the equestrian ministry Calvary Campus.

Robin and George had a blessed Thanksgiving in Columbia, SC with family and went to Conway for George's high school reunion on Saturday. On Sunday, we worshiped at Bakers Chapel in Aynor, SC., with several high school friends...then returned home to Kentucky.
